

OUR CANDIDATES--GOOD MEN AND TRUE

The Republican Party has never failed in loyalty but has stood steadfastly by our boys at the front and their loved ones at home, has supported our government wholeheartedly and without reserve in every effort put forth to bring success to American arms. It will continue in the same way to give, to strive, to fight until out of the mighty struggle shall come an enduring peace, based on a conclusive American victory.

With supreme confidence the party is again going before the people of the county, asking for the support of its candidates. The party has every reason to be proud of the ticket now in the field. The candidates are all well known and in whom the public may place their confidence, men of ability and high standing in the community, each of whom stand by the institutions of the country, who believe in America First. The personality of the candidates for the respective offices is conclusive of this.

GOVERNOR--ALBERT E. SLEEPER

Albert E. Sleeper is again before the people of the state for reelection to the high office of governor.

Governor Sleeper's record as Chief Executive of the state is an open book. In the fullest sense he has been a war governor. With tireless energy, actuated by lofty patriotism he has met the many grave problems growing out of war conditions which have confronted the people of the state, and by clear sighted vision, solved them. His administration of his great office has been clean and able. He has devoted his energies wisely and untiringly, not only to the performance of the tasks that present themselves to every governor, but also to the solving of the new problems and the doing of the great work that has devolved upon Michigan's War Governor.

UNITED STATES SENATOR--TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY

The electors of the state demand the election of Commander Truman H. Newberry for United States Senator.

Commander Newberry is a splendid type of American manhood, his whole life is crowned with achievement and devoted to doing big things. His public service and wide experience has given him a broad understanding and commanding view of our national needs. His record as Secretary of the Navy under President Roosevelt was one of the most brilliant in the history of the department, and the effect of his constructive ability far reaching.

He is now patriotically doing his duty in the naval service of his country. His sons, one in the army and another in the navy are exemplifying their devotion to the flag. The state has need of his services in the Senate of the United States to champion the cause and protect the rights of the citizenship of the nation.

The means that the Democratic Party has taken in an attempt to discredit Commander Newberry should be repudiated at the polls in no uncertain measure.

FOR CONGRESS--LOUIS C. CRAMTON

Louis C. Cramton has been nominated by the electors of this district for Congress. Mr. Cramton has already had a large amount of congressional experience. He has been in France visiting "Our Boys" on the fighting line, studying the needs of the nation at first hand. His experiences and the information he has acquired will be a valuable asset in Congress in framing legislation essential both to the present and future welfare of our Country.

Coming in personal contact with war conditions "Over There" Mr. Cramton's scope of usefulness to the people has been materially enlarged and by virtue of this experience combined with years of service in Congress, imminently fits him to represent the district.

STATE SENATOR--LYMAN A. HOLMES

Lyman A. Holmes is the candidate for State Senator, St. Clair and Macomb County District and has served one term. He is a successful business man of wide experience, and his record in the Senate shows an intimate knowledge of public affairs. His experience, with ability to grasp details of public business made him influential in the Senate, and he was enabled to initiate and shape important legislation. If re-elected, Mr. Holmes will return to Lansing with the prestige of past legislative experience fully equipped to again render the district and state valuable service.

REPRESENTATIVE, STATE LEGISLATURE, FIRST DISTRICT--JOHN W. SMITH

This is a period in our national life, when it becomes of paramount importance that our law makers should be broad minded, capable men, who understand and appreciate the needs and necessities of the times, who will legislate for the perpetuation of all the sacred rights and ideals for which we are now fighting to preserve.

John W. Smith is the candidate for this important office. He is a man of broad experience and mature judgment, imminently qualified to perform the duties of this important office and who fully measures up to the requirements of a legislator.

REPRESENTATIVE, SECOND DISTRICT--FRANKLIN MOORE

The Republicans present Franklin Moore as the candidate for Representative in the State Legislature, Second District.

Mr. Moore is the present incumbent of the office, and has rendered valuable service for the state and district. He is a successful business man and has an intimate knowledge of the needs of the people in the enactment of legislation. Mr. Moore's record in the legislature has met with wide spread approval. He is a faithful public servant. Mr. Moore has a profound knowledge of parliamentary rules and usages and is a candidate for speaker pro-tem of the House. His election is earnestly urged.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY--HENRY R. BAIRD

Henry R. Baird, candidate for Prosecuting Attorney is a man of high legal attainment, who has served nearly four years as Assistant Prosecutor and is thoroughly conversant with the duties of the office for which he is a candidate.

The people of the county will have the services of an experienced prosecutor. Mr. Baird is justly entitled to promotion by election to this position.

SHERIFF--STEPHEN WINDSOR

Stephen Windsor is serving his first term as Sheriff. Mr. Windsor has performed the duties of the office competently, with faithfulness and impartiality. The business of the office during his administration has been handled with promptness and economy. This is an office where executive ability is essential in dealing with the many matters which arise, and Mr. Windsor has shown that he possesses all the qualifications for the office.

COUNTY TREASURER--ALEX. COWAN

Alex. Cowan, candidate for County Treasurer is a farmer and man of affairs. He served in the State Legislature with great credit to himself and benefit to the district and state. His integrity and ability commends itself to the electors of the county. As County Treasurer he will be the right man in the right place.

REGISTER OF DEEDS--DAVID T. MONTEITH

David T. Monteith, the present Register of Deeds is a candidate for a second term. His record as Register of Deeds has met with the commendation of all having business with the office. During his present term the work of the office has been kept up and disposed of promptly. He stands on the excellence of his record and it is but justice to give him a second term.

COUNTY CLERK--JOSEPH E. VINCENT

Joseph E. Vincent, the present County Clerk is a farmer by profession and has made a splendid record in the office, and his treatment of the public has been courteous and obliging. The records in his office are splendidly kept and the work has been at all times up to date. Mr. Vincent is entitled to a second term.

DRAIN COMMISSIONER--IRA E. CHASE

Ira E. Chase is the candidate for Drain Commissioner. This is one of the important offices in the county. Mr. Chase is the present commissioner and has ably served the public. He has been vigorous in the performance of his duties and the large amount of work he has accomplished testifies to his capacity and devotion to duty.

CIRCUIT COURT COMMISSIONERS--DON R. CARRIGAN and GEORGE C. WATSON

Don R. Carrigan of Port Huron, one of the candidates for Circuit Court Commissioner is a successful lawyer and is at present holding this office. He has served the public well and ably.

George C. Watson, the other candidate, resides in Capac. Mr. Watson is at attorney of ability, possessing every qualification for the successful discharge of the duties of the office.

CORONERS--ALBERT FALK and ERNEST HILL

Albert Falk is a candidate for Coroner for another term. Mr. Falk is experienced in the office and his administration of the duties has been marked by efficiency and economy.

Ernest Hill is another coroner candidate and has had experience in the office and always exercised excellent judgment in the performance of his duties.

ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY--Go to the Polls on NOVEMBER 5th and Give These Candidates an Overwhelming Majority